Scoutmaster's Corner

Respect the uniform

It's no coincidence that the Boy Scout uniform has a strong resemblance to military uniforms. After all, the Boy Scout movement was started by a military man, and the title "Scout" itself comes from a military job. We are organized into "troops", consisting of "patrols". We have buglers, and our flag ceremonies are done in a somewhat military style. Why do I mention all this? Because one thing we should also take from the military is the concept of RESPECTING THE UNIFORM.

Respecting the uniform is similar to respecting the American flag. We recognize what it stands for, and handle it with the the appropriate respect. We do not treat the American flag as a mere piece of laundry, and likewise the uniform should not be left in a heap on the floor (and since there is an American flag on the sleeve, you would also be mistreating the flag if you did so).

Also, you should wear the uniform with pride, just as we fly the flag with pride. Wear the entire uniform at ALL APPROPRIATE OCCASIONS. Keep it clean, shirt tucked in, belt fastened, and collar neat.

You would never see a soldier, sailor, or airman wearing his dress uniform in a sloppy manner. It would be clean and pressed, and all the insignia would be up to date. Even the belt buckle would be shined.

Why do we do this? Why do we wear a uniform at all? Well, as the word UNIFORM implies, it creates a look of consistency for the entire unit. It visually shows us to be members of the same team. This is both for the sake of the public who see us, and for us to identify with each other. When the whole troop is in full uniform, each member feels the sense of team, of comradery, and esprit de corps that the uniform creates.

So when you come to a troop or JLC meeting, please come in the appropriate uniform (at JLC we wear the "activity" uniform, which consists of the whole uniform minus the dress shirt). Have it clean, tucked in, and complete. You are part of a great organization, so show your pride, and RESPECT THE UNIFORM.

Yours in Scouting,

Richard Marubayashi,
Scoutmaster

SPL Corner

So camporee is quickly coming up and I expect most of you to show up to the skills day on the 20th of this month (April) and I will be calling the patrol leaders 3 days prior so that they may remind their troops by calling them.

We have passed the half way point in our positions duration and from what I'm seeing a few of the people in their positions not doing what they should not going to name names but you really need to kick it in to high gear.

This is your SPL signing off, BRANDON H.

Climb Instructor Training

- We now have Four BSA Lead Climb Instructors in Troop 314!

The weekend of March 15th, 16th and 17th Scoutmaster Mr. Marubayashi, Mr. Pearson, Mr. Fieffer and Mr. Tran attended an Intensive Climb Instructor Training lead by Climb Director, Tom O. It started at 5 PM on Friday evening and ended Sunday afternoon at Mt. Rubidoux in Riverside, for hands on rock climbing and rappelling instruction.

Troop 314 Scouts Jon F., Ian M. and Owen M. attended the climb training on Sunday. We all enjoyed a nice "walk" from the vehicles up to the top of Mount Rubidoux, carrying all our gear for the day.

Sorry no pictures of Ian M., the climbing machine.

Mr. M. Jogged back down and up the mountain around noon to get lunch for his Scouts as his alarm clock failed and they had to run out the door with just their climb gear in morning.

Mr. Fieffer took some really outstanding photos on our rock climbing day that can be viewed at this site:

SCOUTStrong PALA Challenge

Hello, Troop 314. By now, you all should have started your PALA Challenge and I hope to be receiving completed log sheets. If you haven't started your PALA Challenge, please start now as Scouts can count time in PE class towards the challenge.

We need all registered Scouts (youth) and Scouters (adults) to participate to reach the Bronze level for Fitness for the 2013 Journey to Excellence. Our boys are off to a good start by tracking their ¼ mile run each month for the Fitness Gold level, but we can't reach Gold without first achieving Bronze.

If you misplaced your log sheet, you can print another one (attached to the Newsletter email) or go to https://www.presidentschallenge.org/BSA_39/ if you want to create an account and use the online tracker. For more information about the SCOUTStrong PALA Challenge, go to <http://www.scouting.org/SCOUTStrongPALA.aspx>.

Please make sure you put down activities that are on the activity list and choose a different healthy eating habit for each week.

Thank you, Mrs. Dantas - Advancement Chair

SCOUT IN CHARGE – YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

If you are the Scout -in-charge of an outing, activity, service project, Eagle project, training, patrol meeting, etc, after your event, please remember to turn in your attendance sheet to me (Mrs. Dantas) so the participants can get credit for attending.

The log should include date, start & stop time, location, and the list of who attended. If it's a service/Eagle project, it should include the hours that each participant worked to the nearest half-hour.

If it's a camping trip, it should include number of nights camped for each participant.

It's important to turn in this information in a timely manner. Some scouts may need these activities for advancement. You can hand deliver a paper report or email it to me.

I need reports for El Dorado Park 1st Saturday Stewards, Eden's Garage Sale, Eden's Eagle Project, Peter's Eagle Project, the Canoe trip, and any other activities from January, February and March so far.

Thank you, Mrs. Dantas

Troop 314 Scribe – Junior Leadership Committee (JLC) Minutes, March 5th, 2013 AD.

Leaders in attendance:

Alex B., Brandon H., Mrs. Hight, Ian M., Mr. M., Peter M., Robert P., Mr. Pearson, Long T., David V., Erik V., Owen M., Jon F., Mr. Hilton, Mr. Milan

In this meeting we had discussed our plans for the rocket event at the end of the month. It will be at Bolsa Chica Park and will be an earlier meeting than usual. We will also have our quarter mile run this day.

Camporee was also in discussion. We need our patrols to start wrapping up their cheers, songs, yells, and flags. Camporee also means we are going to have to start meal planning soon. The JLC also talked about adding a few adults per patrol, so keep that in mind.

Remember this camporee is going to be colonial themed, so if you can try to be as patriotic as you can!

Pulp and Paper Merit Badge

Did you know...

that merit badge classes are offered at the Anaheim Scout Shop? Please see the attached flyer for the Merit Badge class offered this month - Pulp & Paper.

If you are interested, you must call to make a reservation, get a blue card from Mrs. Dantas, and do the prerequisites listed on the flyer.

NOTE: This is NOT a drop-off class. Parents/guardians must stay on the premises.

National Youth Leadership Training

The Orange County Council has opened registration for the 2013 National Youth Leadership Training (NYLT). NYLT is the Council level leadership training program held throughout the United States. The course combines classic leadership and team building skills with Boy Scout values. The Orange County NYLT course will be held from June 22 to 27 at Lost Valley. Boy Scout participants need to be First Class by June 1, be 13 years old by June 22, completed a week-long Summer Camp, completed Introduction to Leadership Skills for Troops (or equivalent troop leadership training and have their Scoutmaster's Recommendation and Signature on the Application. There are a limited number of participants allowed on the course, so apply early is recommended.

Application Form

More information about the program can be found at <http://nylt.ocbsa.org/>, or contacting Mr. Batman at Robert.L.Batman@kp.org or 714-943-0874.

A note from Mrs. Dantas: We are looking for a couple of scouts to attend NYLT this year. This is a great opportunity for some young men to learn some valuable lessons in being a good leader, and to have a good time and make some new friends. This will also look great on a future work or college application. I'm pretty sure there is some troop money budgeted to send a couple boys to NYLT. If a weeklong camp doesn't work for you, there is also a two 3-day-weekend NYLT at Camp Tahquitz the 3rd and 4th weekends in June. If you are interested and meet the requirements, please see Mr. Marubayashi.

Patrol Advisors

Patrol Advisors help the Patrol Leader guide the patrol and improve their leadership skills. The patrol leader should check with their advisor to plan patrol meetings and activities.

If possible, the advisor should be present at patrol breakouts during the meeting to help plans go smoothly, and to oversee menus and other scout planning events.

Meeting Night Patrols

Skill Patrol Leaders remember when you are planning the skills for the meeting, make sure that two levels of Skills should be worked out and that they are appropriate to the Troop Program Features Theme. It is best that everyone is (and can be) involved. When possible – see if a competition or game & competition can be made out of your skills.

The patrol that has flag ceremony /setup / cleanup should show up by 6:45pm (earlier if it's a court of honor). It's the patrol leader's responsibility to make sure they do. This means picking up the phone to confirm. Email or text are OK, but are not a substitute for direct bi-directional voice comm.

No one in the patrol should leave until everything is cleaned up and put away, or the patrol leader releases them.

Dutch Oven Cooking is only done during specified meetings. For example, Hot dogs and cooking are usually done when we have Webelos visit.

Standard Elements of a Flag Ceremony

FLAG BEARER: The person who carries the flag - one flag per person. Hold the staff at a slight angle in front of the body or hold the folded flag in front of the body at waist level. The Flag Bearer stands silent and at attention throughout the ceremony and does not repeat the Pledge of Allegiance.

COLOR GUARD: They guard the honor of the flag and watch to see that the flag does not touch the ground. They stand behind the flag bearer, or to each side if in a line of more than one flag. Two per flag is traditional, but any number may be used. They stand silent and at attention throughout the ceremony and do not repeat the Pledge of Allegiance.

COLOR GUARD COMMANDER: The designated Scout who "calls out" the parts of the ceremony. Stands in front and to one side of audience.

Raising and Lowering the Flag on a Flag Pole - Raise the flag briskly, lower it slowly. When flying the flag at half mast, raise it to the top of the pole, then lower it to half mast. When taking the flag down from half mast, first raise it back to the top of the pole, then lower it slowly. (On Memorial Day, fly the flag at half-mast until noon then raise it to full staff for the rest of the day.)

Carrying the Flag - Always carry the flag aloft and flying free. When the flag is carried alone, there should be an honor guard to the left of it, or one on each side of it. When carried with other flags, the U.S. Flag should be in front of the others, or the right if the flags are in a line. Never dip the flag of the United States for any person or thing.

Commands for a Standard Flag Ceremony

Said by the Color Guard Commander:

1. "Please stand for the presentation (or retiring) of Colors."
Note: Said before flags enter the room or begin motion.
2. "Scouts, Attention."
Note: All Scouts stand at attention.
3. "Color Guard, Attention."
4. "Color Guard, Advance."
Note: Color Guard advances to stage or flag pole, U.S. Flag is first in line.
5. "Scouts, salute."
Note: The Color Guard stays at attention. Color Guard Commander and Scouts Salute.
Scouts salute the flag any time it is in motion.
6. "Color Guard, Halt."
7. "Will the audience please join me in the Pledge of Allegiance."
Note: Color Guard does not salute or recite the Pledge of Allegiance or sing the National Anthem. They stand at attention and guard the flags.
8. "Two"
Upon this command, scouts lower their arm smartly to their side from the salute.
9. "Color Guard, Post the Colors."
Note: Once the flags are posted into the flag stands, the color guard salutes the flag and then stands at attention. When retrieving the colors, the color guard first salute the flags before removing them from their posts.
10. "Color Guard, reform. Forward."
11. "Color Guard, halt."

12. "Color Guard, at ease." (or "Scouts, dismissed" if this is the closing)

Note: The Color Guard Commander may direct the Scouts to be at-ease or to be seated.

Color Guard Commander's Cheat Sheet

Presenting the Colors:

1. Please stand for the presentation of the colors.
2. Scouts, attention.
3. Color Guard, attention.
4. Color Guard, advance.
5. Scouts, salute.
6. Color Guard, halt.
7. Will the audience please join me in the Pledge of Allegiance.
8. (Pledge of Allegiance)
9. Two.
10. Color Guard, post the colors.
11. Color Guard, reform. Forward.
12. Color Guard, halt.
13. Color Guard, at ease.
14. Audience, at ease.

Retiring the Colors:

1. Please stand for the retiring of the colors.
2. Scouts, attention.
3. Color Guard, attention.
4. Color Guard, advance.
5. Color Guard, halt.
6. Color Guard, retrieve the colors.
7. Scouts, salute.
8. Color Guard, forward.
9. Color Guard, halt.
10. Two.
11. Color Guard, at ease.
12. Audience, at ease.

How To Be a Friend to Someone With Autism

Take the Initiative to Include Him or Her - Your friend may desperately want to be included and may not know how to ask. Be specific about what you want him to do. Show him how to do it.

- o Find Common Interests - It will be much easier to talk about or share something you both like to do (movies, sports, music, books, TV shows, etc.).

- o Be Persistent and Patient - Remember that your friend with autism may take more time to respond than other people. It doesn't necessarily mean he or she isn't interested.

- o Communicate Clearly - Speak at a reasonable speed and volume. It might be helpful to use short sentences. Use gestures, pictures, and facial expressions to help communicate. Speak literally – do not use confusing figures of speech or idioms (He may truthfully tell you, “the sky” if you ask “What’s up?”)

- o Stand Up For Him or Her - If you see someone teasing or bullying a friend with autism, take a stand and tell the person that it’s not cool.

- o Remember Sensory Sensitivity - Your friend may be very uncomfortable in certain situations or places (crowds, noisy areas, bright lights, etc.). Ask if he or she is OK. Sometimes your friend may need a break.

- o Give Feedback - If your friend with autism is doing something inappropriate, it’s OK to tell him nicely. Just be sure to also tell him what the right thing to do is because he may not know.

- o Don't Be Afraid - Your friend is just a kid like you who needs a little help. Accept his or her differences and respect strengths just as you would for any friend.

Chaplain's Aide's Inspiration of the month:

As we approach events such as Camp-O-Ree and Scout-O-Rama, strive to become a better leader as well as a better individual.

We should follow the Scout motto, Scout law and Scout oath in our daily life. As the founder of Scouting, Robert Baden Powell, stated "We never fail when we try to do our duty, we always fail when we neglect to do it." Keep this in mind during our scouting events.

Chaplain's Aid, STEVEN Y.

Scout Dutch Oven Eating Recipe of the Month

Savory Stew with Biscuits

- 1 Beef Roast (1/2 lb. per person)
- 1 bottle Zesty Italian salad dressing
- 1 tbsp. Worcestershire sauce
- 1 tbsp. butter or margarine
- 1 large onion
- 1 tsp. pepper

1 tsp. garlic salt
1 tsp. seasoning salt
1/2 cup corn starch
1 - 2 cans refrigerated jumbo biscuits
1 large Ziplock bag
2 - 3 1 lb. bags frozen vegetables.

Note: The onion can be omitted if the frozen vegetable package includes onion. It's nice to include a specialty mixture of vegetables for color and variety.) 1 package mushroom (or brown) gravy mix. Also, (a package of e.g., McCormick, beef stew seasoning can be used in place of the seasonings and corn starch)

The morning of the dinner, cut up the roast into bite-sized cubes, put the cubes in the Ziplock bag, and add the salad dressing and Worcestershire sauce. Seal the bag and knead to mix the contents. Put the bag back in the cooler until it is time to cook. It is best if the meat can marinate at least four hours (this imparts a wonderful flavor to the meat as well as tenderizes it).

Dice the onion, sauté in the butter in the Dutch oven. Then add marinated meat and spices and brown the meat. After the meat has browned, add the mixed vegetables and stir.

Mix the gravy mix with water in a separate cup per the instructions on the package and add to the stew. If there is not enough liquid to the mixture, add a little more water. Cover the Dutch Oven and allow to cook for about 1/2 hour.

Mix the corn starch with cold water in a separate cup until it is a thick liquid. Slowly stir this into the stew until it starts to thicken. Cover and allow to simmer for 5 - 10 more minutes, stirring frequently.

Pull the oven off the fire and uncover. Place jumbo biscuits on top of the stew leaving a small gap between the biscuits. Cover the oven and place the oven on a pile of coals, then place coals on the lid. Check until the biscuits are light golden brown.
